KUSF

KUSF.org is the University’s internet streaming audio service. The service can be found at kusf.org and can be heard throughout the world. KUSF as an FM station (1977-2011) was known both nationally and internationally for its innovative programming and approach to music. Located on the USF campus KUSF has been closely involved with the emergence of new music and the new music business. KUSF invites students, both those in Media Studies and other majors, to use KUSF as a recreation activity as well as a training facility. Alumni of KUSF (FM) have often been very successful in pursuit of employment in the radio and music industries.

For more information, please call KUSF at (415) 422-2836 or go to their website, www.kusf.org.

Foghorn

The Foghorn is the only student-run newspaper on campus, where all members of the University community can express their views, concerns and diverse ideas. The Foghorn is dedicated to providing up-to-date news and information to all the community and guarantees freedom and fairness for all. Students are welcome to participate and gain from a well-rounded experience that generates responsibility, honesty and integrity.

For more information, call (415) 422-6122 or visit their website at http://foghorn.usfca.edu
